

New findings on Virtual Harm Reduction Acceptability, Safety, and Efficacy

Category: Symposium Overview

Abstract Body

N/A

Key Words

- Rural
- Substance Use Disorder (general)
- Technology
- Virtual Care

Learning Objective # 1

Understand the current scope of virtual overdose response services

Learning Objective # 2

Understand the perceptions of virtual overdose response services by various stake holder groups.

Reference # 1

George Matskiv, Tyler Marshall, Oona Krieg, Dylan Viste, S. Monty Ghosh. Virtual overdose monitoring services: a novel adjunctive harm reduction approach for addressing the overdose crisis. CMAJ Nov 2022, 194 (46) E1568-E1572; DOI: 10.1503/cmaj.220579

Reference # 2

Jessica P., Rebecca Morris-Miller, Brandy Myette, S. Monty Ghosh. Receiving and providing virtual harm reduction and peer-based support. CMAJ Apr 2023, 195 (15) E548-E550; DOI: 10.1503/cmaj.221188

Co-Author

Dr. Monty Ghosh
Assistant Professor | University of Alberta

Co-Author

Mr. Dylan Viste
Research Assistant | University of Calgary

